

POLICY OF FINANCIAL RESPONSIBILITY

As the patient, you must provide our office with current insurance information. If your insurance changes, you must notify us and provide us with your insurance cards. It is your responsibility to check with your insurance carrier to determine whether your visit or procedure will be covered. Any amount not covered by your insurance is your responsibility. If you cannot provide valid insurance information, your visit will be treated according to the self-pay policy.

All co-payment, co-insurance, and deductible amounts are due at the time of service. Failure to pay these amounts may result in your appointment being cancelled. If you are involved in an automobile accident and/or liability claim, you are expected to pay for the services personally, unless prior arrangements have been made with your health insurance. We do not file third party insurance and we do not wait until settlement for payment.

If you cannot make your scheduled appointment for an office visit or procedure, please notify our office 48 hours in advance. Missed appointments without prior notice, including appointments for which you are more than 15 minutes late, are subject to a fee and future appointments may not be scheduled. Any fees incurred for missed or late appointments will not be covered by you insurance company. You are responsible for keeping your appointment and for paying any fees incurred by missing your appointments.

I have read and I understand Interventional Pain Consultants' policy of Financial Responsibility.
